

Dear Japanese Colleagues:

It is very depressing that the Japanese government decided to retract the endorsement of HPV vaccination. Clearly this is one of the safest and most efficient vaccinations which is presently available even in comparison to some of the vaccines which we provide to small children.

With best regards

Prof. Harald zur Hausen

Deutsches Krebsforschungszentrum, Heidelberg, Germany